Democrat! Hurrah! Hurrah!

FOR

McCLELLAN PENDLETON and ROSS.

"The time has come when the people of this country ask no more, but a MASS MEETING of the Democracy of Philadelphia, Bucks and Montgomery counties will be held in the Hall of Association, 213 Ward, Philadelphia, on FRIDAY EVENING, the SIXTH of OCTOBER, at 8 o'clock, to sustain freedom, and rally in all your strength, in the cause of constitutional liberty. Come in all your might, with bands, flags and banners. The meeting will be addressed by General Hancock and speakers: Hon. Wm. H. White, Hon. G. W. Chapman, Col. T. A. Tenney, of New York; H. P. Ross, Esq., Chas. H. Smith, Esq., George W. Northern, Esq., Charles Backwell, Esq., C. C. Page, Justus Davis and others.

The active forces of the day will be a delegation of thirty-two State delegations, representatives of the States. Clubs and delegations will please be on the ground early, as the meeting will commence precisely at 12 M. By order of the Committee of arrangements.

J. B. READING,
Chairman of Committee.

[Sept. 27.]

A GRAND RALLY OF THE FRIENDS OF THE Constitutional Union of Our Fathers.

ALL who are in favor of the Preservation of the Constitution as it is, and the Restoration of the Union as it was—all who will co-operate with the Democracy to secure the great inherent rights of Freeman to Personal Liberty, Free Speech and a Free Press—all who desire that the citizens may enjoy the protection of civil law, by an appeal to the Courts—all who believe in the right of the citizen to vote for the man he prefers without interference by armed soldiers, Proves Marshal, or the government army, and instructed by that oath of intent—all who are opposed to Negro Equality and Negro Suffrage—all who are for peace on the basis of the Union and Constitutionalism, are cordially invited to attend a GREAT DEMOCRATIC MASS MEETING, to be held in WOODSBURY, the SIXTH DAY OF OCTOBER, 1864.

At Quakertown Station, on the North Pennsylvania Railroad, at ten o'clock A. M. Emilie Gould, speaker will be pleased to address the meeting when opened with the American National Anthem.

The Democrats and Friends of the adjoining counties of Montgomery, Bucks, Chester, and Philadelphia, are invited to attend. The Republicans and other friends will be there.

Leading Abolition, Anti-slavery and all others who stand by the Union, the Constitution, vindicate to Law, and opposed to Negro Equality and colored Taxation, are invited to attend.

By order of the COMMITTEE OF ARRANGEMENTS.

[Sept. 28.]

A Grand Union Democratic Mass Meeting
AT THE HOME OF W. P. FENTON.

BY the Citizens of Bucks and Montgomery counties, will be held at Warminster, on the York Avenue, three miles above Hatboro and near the street road, on YESTERDAY, the FOURTH DAY of OCTOBER, of the year
