You're invited to a special workshop for National History Day 2012 at the Historical Society of Pennsylvania!

National History Day Philly Kick-Off
Tuesday, September 27, 2011 4:30-6:30 p.m.

The Historical Society of Pennsylvania
1300 Locust St., Philadelphia

National History Day is a middle and high school program that develops knowledge and critical thinking skills through history. The theme for NHD 2012 is Revolution, Reaction, and Reform in History. This program will introduce NHD, suggest ways to integrate it into the classroom, and present NHD resources available in Philadelphia. Attendees will meet regional librarians and archivists to find out what you and your students need to know about doing research and using primary source documents. After the program, join us for a food and drink reception. The Historical Society of Pennsylvania will showcase fantastic student research and projects from last year's NHD competition in a new exhibit

Teachers may receive Act 48 credit for attending this FREE event. For more information or to register, contact Beth Twiss-Houting, Senior Director of Programs and Services at the Historical Society of Pennsylvania, at 215-732-6200 ext. 246 or btwsshouting@hsp.org.
