

Name: _____

The Statue of Liberty and What it means to be an American

Take a look at poem and what does it look like?

What do you expect to learn from it?

What does it say? Take notes on major points.

Now that you have the source, interpret what it means.

What new ideas did you learn?

How does this learning connect to what you already know of this topic?

How did your exploration of this poem and landmark make you think about your own story?