

Drawer
Text

Athletic Base Ball Club.
Philadelphia, Sept. 14. 1862

Sir: Your favor of the 7th has rec<sup>d</sup> by me today & so my return has on foot for now. In reply I am instructed to convey to you our thanks for the Club on that point. Thanks to the very comfortable terms in which you have always profited to speak of us. Nothing is of me. You will be glad to hear that I know that our own efforts have merited the approval of our friends at home; and it incites me to anything more than to speak in on to remove action, these manifestations of confidence from our brethren in the City, that have met us on all sides, must I feel confident be a sufficient incentive -

Trusting that we may always retain your sympathy and return one again. Yr<sup>rs</sup> and
J. G. White to
Society Reform P. R. C. Wm. M. Sullivan