

Connect with HSP

Did you know that there are now more ways than ever to connect with your history online?

HSP has multiple social media accounts that update regularly – follow us, friend us, and join in the conversation!

Our Facebook [1] page posts links to new blog posts, articles about HSP, interesting things in the collection, and anything else that catches our eye!

We're also on Twitter [2], with regular updates on upcoming events, and interesting images in our collection. We promise it's only cute animals about half the time.

Need some old and new images in your life? Follow us on Instagram [3], get the inside scoop on what's going on at HSP. Plus fun, funky, and beautiful images from our shared history.

Finally, when was the last time you checked out our blogs? Left a comment on the latest Fondly, Pennsylvania post, or took a guess at our Question of the week? hsp.org/blogs [4] for all of them -- including a new blog from HSP's own Dr. Dan Rolph, debuting this week!
