

Accessibility

The wheelchair accessible entrance to the Historical Society of Pennsylvania is located on the 13th Street side of the building, just south of Locust Street. To enter or exit through this entrance, ring the door buzzer so that staff may assist you.

If you need to bring an assistant with you for any kind of physical impairment during your visit, we will not charge your accompanying aide admission. Upon advanced request, Visitor Services can also provide you with a research aide here.

Do not hesitate to contact Visitor Services to schedule a research aid or ask questions through our online customer service system: <http://ticket.hsp.org/customer> <sup>[1]</sup>. You may also reach Visitor Services by phone at 215-732-6200 ext. 221.
