

The following are newspaper articles

The Christian Recorder, May 4, 1861

INSTITUTE FOR COLORED YOUTH.

The Ninth Annual Examination of the classes of the Institute for Colored Youth, will take place on Friday, May 3d, 1861, at the Institute Building, No. 716 and 718 Lombard Street. The Exercises begin at 9 o'clock, A.M., and, with one recess, will be continued until 6 o'clock, P.M. Classes will be examined throughout the day, by the teachers as follows: -

MORNING SESSION - 9 o'clock - Geometry, Physical Geography, Physiology, Arithmetic, U.S. History, Latin, Reading, Mental Arithmetic, Algebra, English Composition, Roman History, and Greek.

AFTERNOON SESSION - 3 o'clock - Trigonometry, Lesson in Botany, Examination of Girls' Introductory Class, Higher Algebra, English Grammar, Natural History, Arithmetic, Grammar, and Latin.

Prizes will be given at the close of the morning session, and diplomas at the close of the afternoon session.

The Philadelphia Inquirer, May 5, 1862

INSTITUTE FOR COLORED YOUTH.—The private annual examination of the senior class of the Institute for Colored Youth took place last week. Questions were propounded in Latin and Greek, as well as Plane and Spherical Trigonometry. The Tenth Annual Commencement will take place on Tuesday and Wednesday next.