"The years pass, and the world forgets the efforts of virtually all men and women of goodwill. And yet those efforts are not necessarily in vain because they are forgotten. They may bear fruit in myriad unrecognized ways, small but potent in one life helped here, in a single future brightened there. I know I could never forgive myself if I elected to live without humane purposes, without trying to help the poor and unfortunate, without recognizing that perhaps the greatest joy in life comes with trying to help others."

Arthur Ashe, Days of Grace

A MONUMENT FOR ARTHUR ASHE
MONUMENT AVENUE - RICHMOND, VIRGINIA

Virginia Heroes Inc. Sponsor - Paul Dipasquale, Sculptor
Earth Design Assoc. Landscape Architect

© 1986 All Rights Reserved Paul Dipasquale