

Brother versus Brother:
The Drayton Letter
Document Analysis Worksheet

DOCUMENT AS OBJECT

What is your first impression of this letter? Does it have any unique characteristics? Describe what you see:

DOCUMENT AS EVIDENCE

What is this letter's central idea? Why do you think this letter was written?

What new or different perspective does it provide you about the subject?

DOCUMENT IN CONTEXT

How does the information in this letter connect to what you already know about antebellum America?

List any questions about this letter or its context that you have: