

Cold War

George Vasley Papers (MSS157) George Vasley was born in the Ukraine and fled to Czechoslovakia after the Russian Revolution. He came to the United States with his family in 1948, settling in Harrisburg. The collection includes correspondence, documents, materials relating to passage to the United States, miscellaneous printed materials, and uncataloged photographs.

Box 7 - anti-Communist writing

HQ 792. U5 K3. Kahn, Albert Eugene. The Game of Death; Effects of the Cold War On Our Children. [1st ed.]. New York: Cameron & Kahn, 1953.

PAM D 363. D43x. Deutscher, Isaac. Myths of the Cold War. Ann Arbor: Radical Education Project, 1965.

E 184. A1 P7x People-to-People (Organization). Proceedings of Nationalities Groups Committee : People-to-people Program, Monday, December 10, 1956, Washington, D.C. [Washington, D.C.: Nationalities Groups Committee, 1956.