Fishing on the lake and swimming in the modern pool are favorite summer sports.

At Riverview Beach Park, Pennsville, N.J., on the Delaware.
A LARGE MODERN SWIMMING POOL IS A STELLAR ATTRACTION AT RIVERVIEW BEACH PARK, PENNSVILLE, N. J., ON THE DELAWARE.
ARMSIET RIDES, A MODERN SWIMMING POOL, A LAKE AND AN ATHLETIC FIELD MAKE RIVERVIEW BEACH PARK AN IDEAL RESORT FOR FAMILY OR GROUP EXCURSIONS.
New swimming pool at Riverview Beach, Pennsville, N. J., is seen above with a crowd of others having the time of their lives. The $150,000 pool is 75 by 100 feet and is supplied with water at the rate of 60,000 gallons an hour.

N.J. Riverview Beach

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Jones,

Yours truly,

[Signature]

[Stamp: Philadelphia Record]

[Signature]

[Date: Jul 26 19...]

[Handwritten notes:]
- Hearts 720
- Good will
- Fully-Van

[Historical Society of Pennsylvania]

This photograph is made only for research purposes or to share non-commercially. For all other purposes, contact Rights and Reproductions at rmr@hsp.org 215-732-6200 x333 web: http://digitallibrary.hsp.org

Material may be protected by copyright law (Title 17 U.S. Code). Commercial usage rights are not granted for this image.

PLACE THIS CARD IN ALL PHOTOGRAPHS
From Wilson Line, exclusive to Record.

Florence Mosdzinski, 772 South Front St. (center), was a member of the 1st annual Polish-American outing beauty contest put on by St. Stanislaus C.C. Phila. Sunday afternoon at Riverview Beach.

Some 2000 members & friends of St. Stanislaus parish took the trip down the Delaware via the Wilson Line, S.S. State of Penna.

Girl on the left is Marie Lynch, 428 50th St. (night).

Helen Andrzeczyk, 119 League St.

July 27, 1930