RESOURCES ON AFRICAN IMMIGRATION

FILM AND VIDEO

“Adventure” story by a Kenyan journalist in Spokane, Washington about life in the United States from an African perspective.

Documentary about sub-Saharan Africans who flee to seek asylum in Europe.

Documentary examines the historic relationship between Africa and America by tracing a song from Gullah culture to Sierra Leone.

Story about a man in Senegal, working as a tour guide at a historical site where slaves were taken to America, who heads to New York City to trace his own family’s history in America.

Documentary about men from Batama, a village in Mali, who seek work in New York, Paris, and Tokyo.

SOUND RECORDINGS

PERIODICALS AND NEWSPAPERS

The African Voice. Cosmic Publications, 5010 Antntana Avenue, Baltimore, MD 21206.
Monthly magazine featuring news from the African continent

“Africa’s Weekly World Newspaper”

BOOKS AND ARTICLES

For younger readers grade 6 and up.

WEB

