Pequannock and the Revolution: Thesis & Evidence Record

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>THEN</th>
<th>Evidence For</th>
<th>Evidence Against</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Hypothesis: Relationship between Pequannock and Revolution during the War</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Evidence from the Articles of Association</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Evidence from the landmark</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Final Rewrite of your hypothesis into a thesis, considering all the evidence</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
NOW: Pause and consider all the evidence and ideas we have discussed: Write one sentencing summarizing the impact the American Revolution upon Pequannock’s view of itself today.

___________________________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________________________

Historical Marker – First Reformed Cemetery

1. Share your thesis statements with your partner. Jot down the most important points you both bring up in your separate statements.

2. Design a “historical marker” for the First Reformed Cemetery with 3-4 sentences explaining its significance. Your text should address:
   a. the role that the residents of Pequannock had in supporting the War for Independence
   b. the impact that the Revolution has had upon Pequannock ideals and identity