

Pope John Paul II In Philadelphia

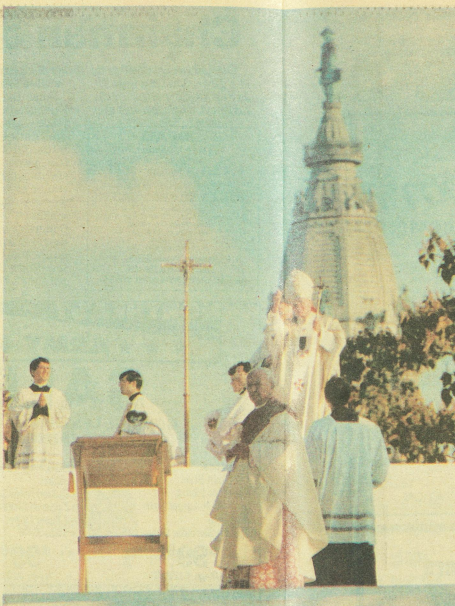

Photos by Charles F. Sibre

CARDINAL KROL escorted Pope John Paul II from TWA's Shepherd 1 at Philadelphia International Airport where the pontiff arrived an hour late from New York on Oct. 3.

GOD BLESS PHILADELPHIA — Pope John Paul acknowledges the cheers of Philadelphians in the Cathedral-Basilica of SS. Peter and Paul for the first pontiff ever to invoke God's blessing on the city while visiting it.

A MILLION people gathered on the Benjamin Franklin Parkway for the pontiff's Mass on the altar at Logan Circle.

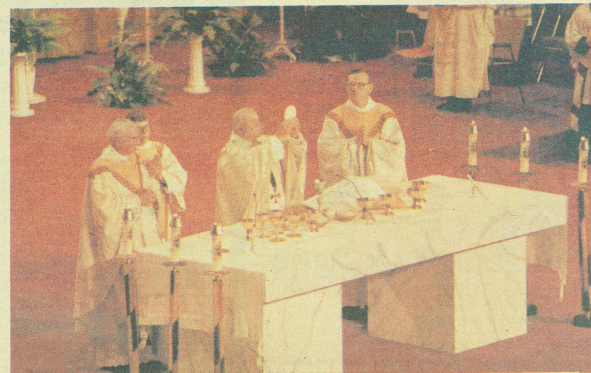

UKRAINIAN CATHOLICS in Philadelphia were greeted by Pope John Paul on Oct. 4 at the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception, 816 N. Franklin st.

A HAPPY CONGREGATION greeted Pope when he arrived with Cardinal Krol early Thursday morning at the tomb of St. John Neumann at St. Peter's Church, 5th and Girard ave.

SEMINARIANS at St. Charles Borromeo Seminary, Overbrook, applauded the Pope when he visited on the night of Oct. 3. Msgr. Vincent L. Burns, the rector of St. Charles, applauds at right.

POPE JOHN PAUL celebrated a Mass for priests and seminarians with Cardinal Krol and Abbot John E. Neitzel, O. Fraem, of Daylesford Abbey at the Civic Center on Oct. 4.