

Journal C of Station No. 2

William Still

1852-1857

Vigilance Committee of Philadelphia, PAS Papers, HSP

---

Aug. 28/54

Arrived- Wesley Kinnard, old name, Sam'l Green- left Indian Creek, Dorchester, Co. about a week ago- He belonged to Dr. James Muse, who is thought to be, by the servant, "the worst man in Md.," whipping and all manners of cruelty, he would inflict upon his servants. James had been hired out at blacksmithing, for several yrs.- was induced to leave by receiving instructions from Harriet Tubman who had had a visit to his neighborhood last spring, after her Bros.

Age 24 yrs. Black, rather below the medium size, smart, active- reads and writes and seems quite intelligent, left father and mother- Sam'l and Catherine- one sister- Sarah.

To Board	2.50
Porter to Bustills <sup>1</sup>		.12 ½
4 Days board 50c per day	2.00
	4.62 ½

---

<sup>1</sup> Joseph Cassey Bustill was an African American conductor on the Underground Railroad

Aug 28/54

Arrived - Wesley Thomas, old name,
Sam'l Green - left Indian Creek, Dorchester
Co. about a week ago - He belonged to Dr. James Muse, who, is thought to be, by the servant, "the worst man in Md. whipping, and all manner of cruelty he would inflict upon <sup>his</sup> servants. James had been hired out at Blacksmithing, for several yrs. - Was intended to leave by receiving instructions from Thomas Tubman who had paid a visit to his brother last Spring, after her Pros.

Age 24 yrs. Black, rather below the median size, smart, active - reads & writes and seems quite intelligent. Left father & Mother - Sam'l & Catherine - one sister Sarah
To Board

Cash		2.50
Porter to Bustell		1.25
" 4 days board	50¢ per day	2.00
		<hr/> 4.75